

'Inspire, challenge and achieve...together'

HOME-SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Welcome to Oakfield Primary School. We believe that a positive partnership between home and school is vital to help our children flourish and get the very best from their education.

The home-school agreement ensures a clear commitment to working together with clear expectations of pupils, of staff and of parents through our values of being ready, being respectful and being safe.

As a pupil I will:

- Attend school every day and on time (8.45 – 3.15)
- Be ready to learn and work hard in every lesson
- Be respectful to my fellow pupils, staff and visitors and use my manners well
- Keep myself and others safe, including when using the internet
- Take care of the school building, including the outdoor area
- Be respectful of others and embrace individual differences
- Walk quietly down the corridors
- Follow the lunchtime code of behaviour
- Complete homework set and hand it in on time
- Read five times a week
- Know who to go to if I feel unhappy or unsafe
